

Dear diary (20th of August)

It was my birthday and my dream present came true

Okay so here is what happened, my mum, dad, friends and cousins were all circling around this big large box with a bow and it was addressed to me I saw the box shake and then it happened 1,2,3 something came from right in the box, as it came rushing towards us we screamed, every one screamed louder than ever. I screamed the loudest because for my birthday I had just got the cutest white and little puppy.

Peace out... Diary
